

Installing eG Android Studio Plugin

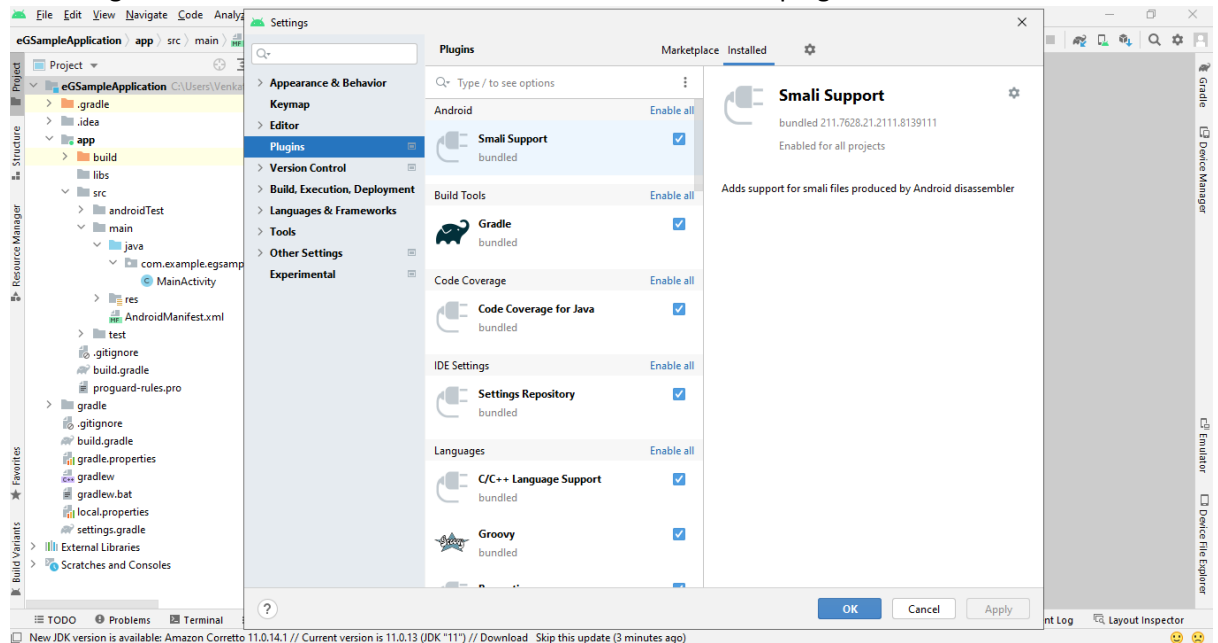

Supported Android Studio Version: Android Studio Chipmunk | 2021.2.1 Patch 1

Copy or download the plugin zip file into local directory.

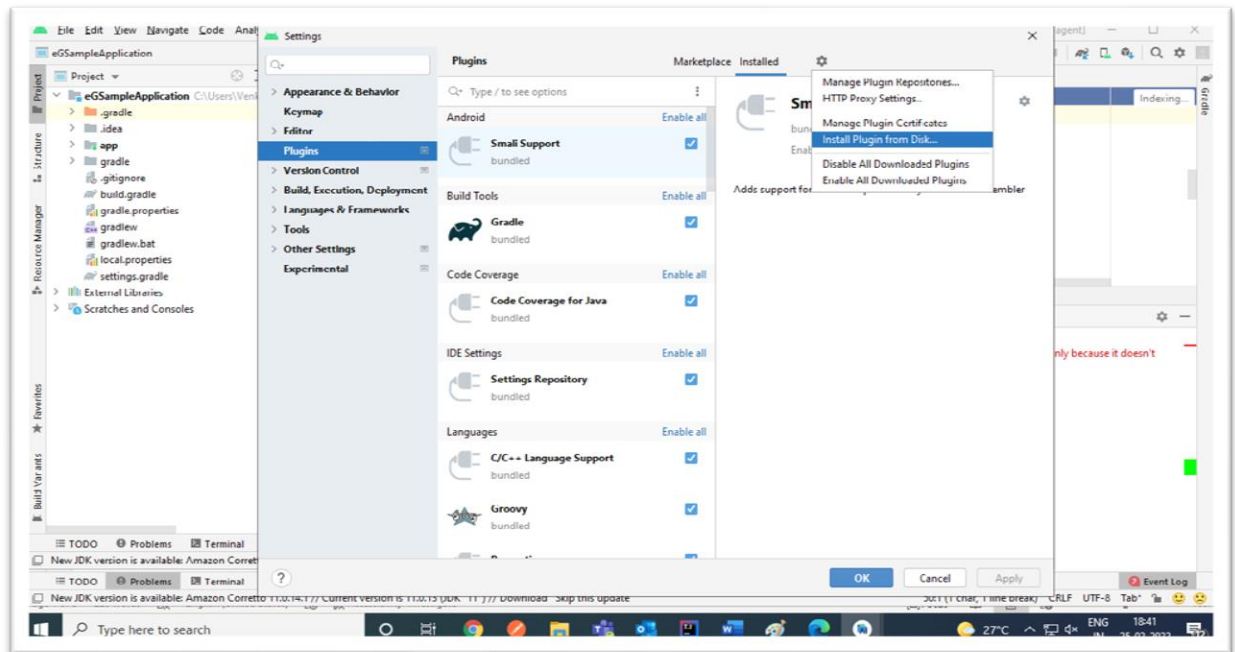

1. Open Android Studio.
2. Open File -> Settings

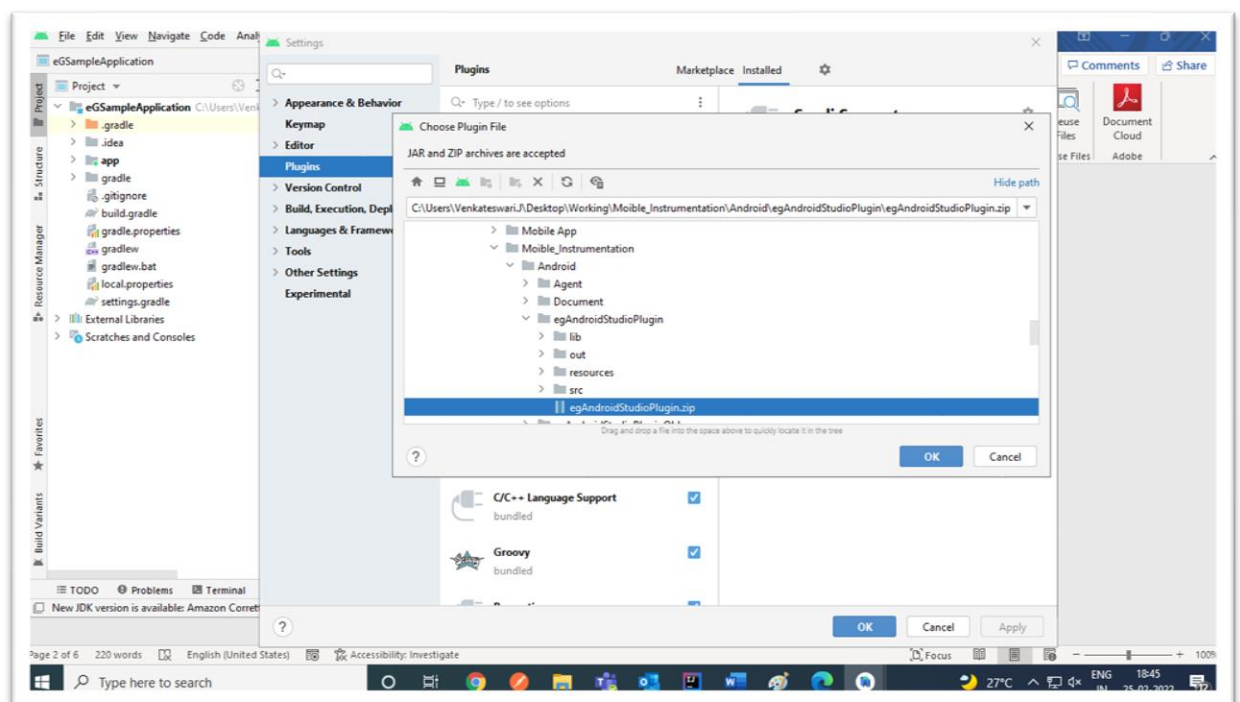

3. Click Plugins in the menu as shown below. It will show the list of plugins installed.

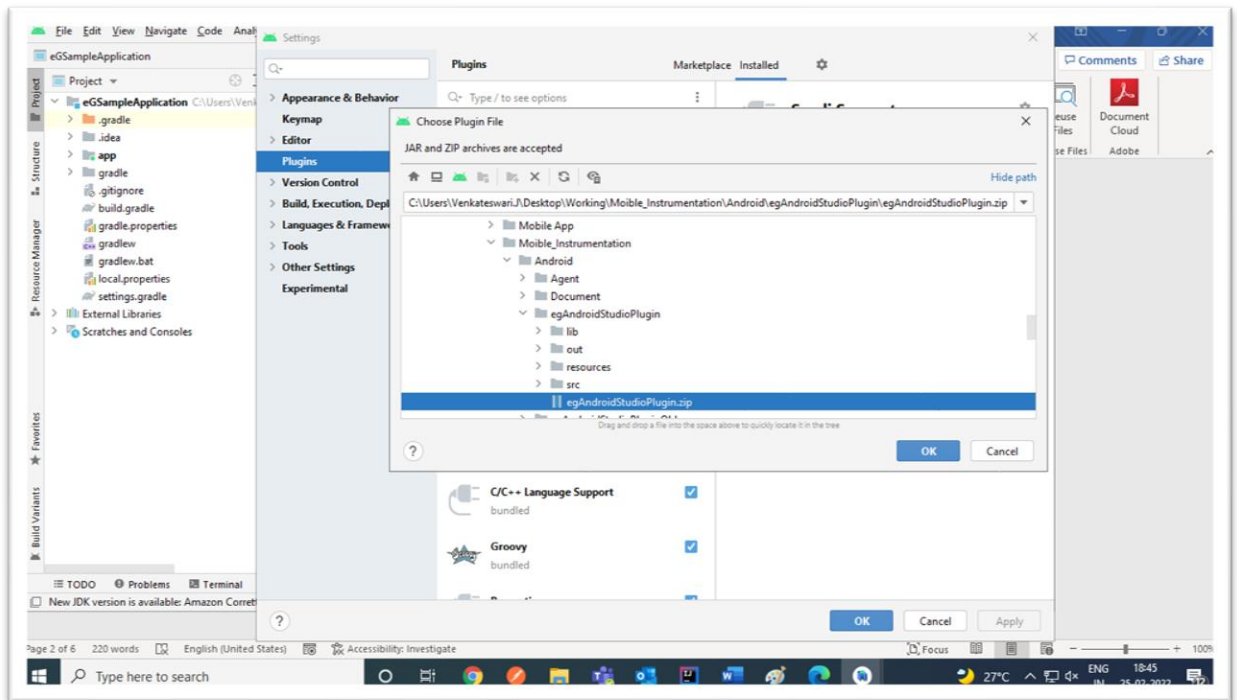

4. In the plugins window click settings icon from the top panel. From that menu select "Install Plugin from desk"

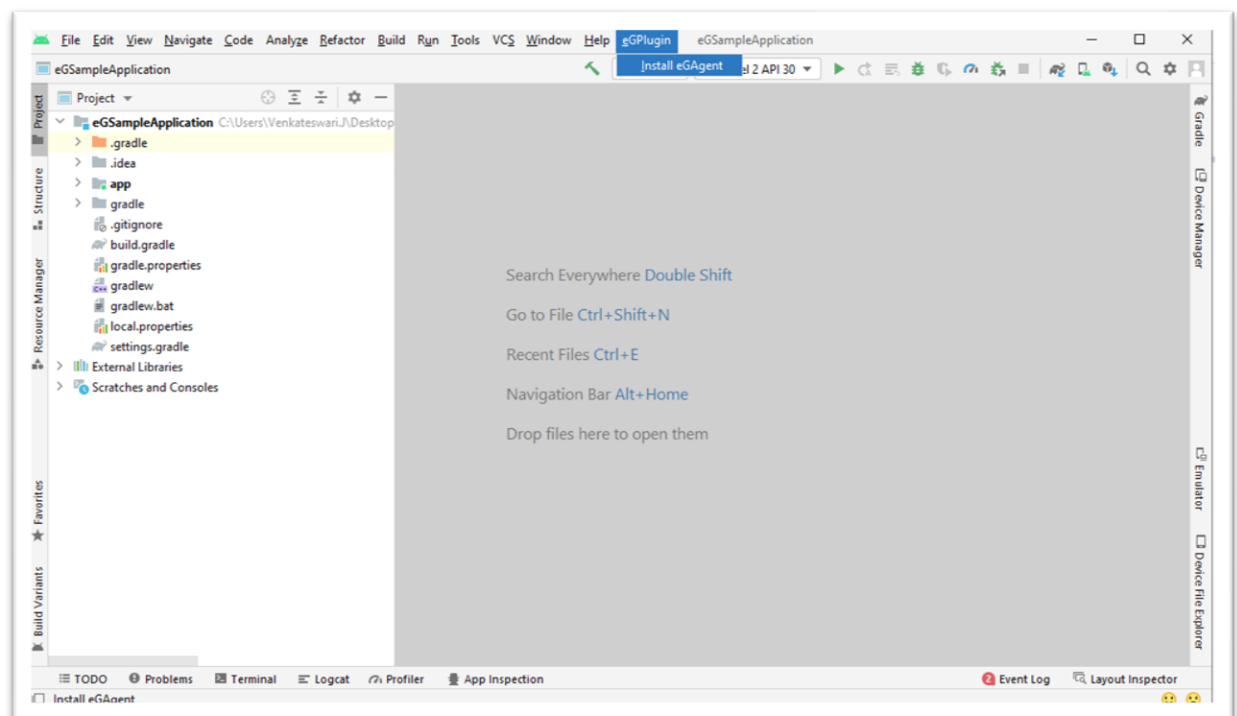

5. It will open file window. Select the zip file from step 1. Click Ok.

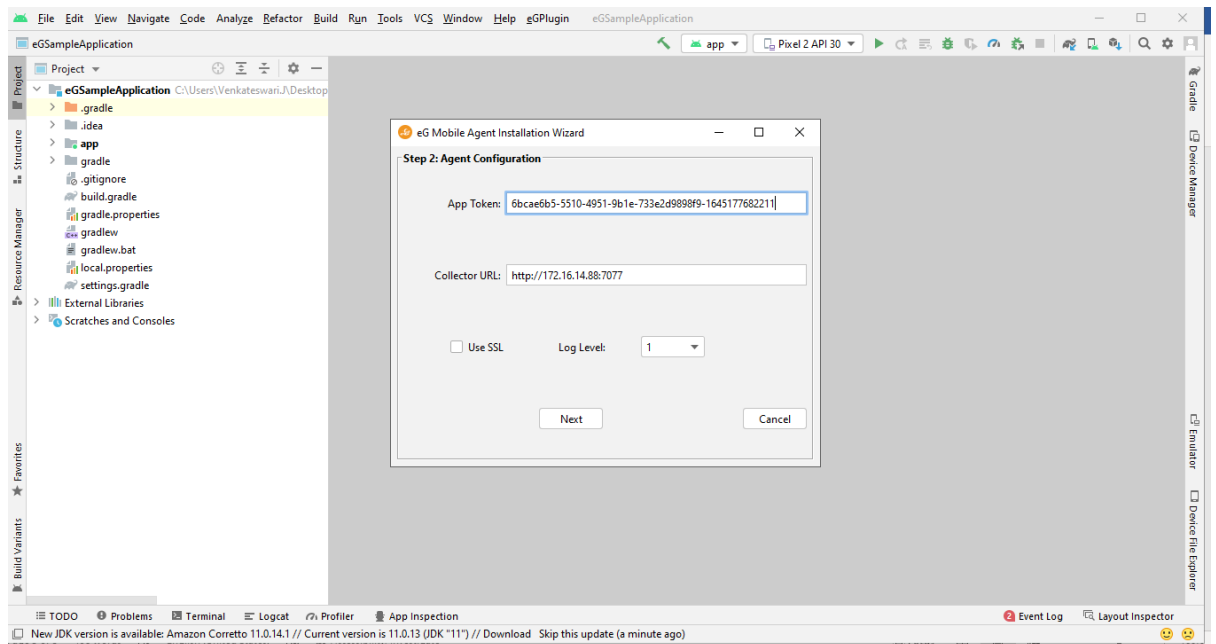

6. eGAndroid Studio plugin got installed and can be seen along with other plugins. Restart android studio.

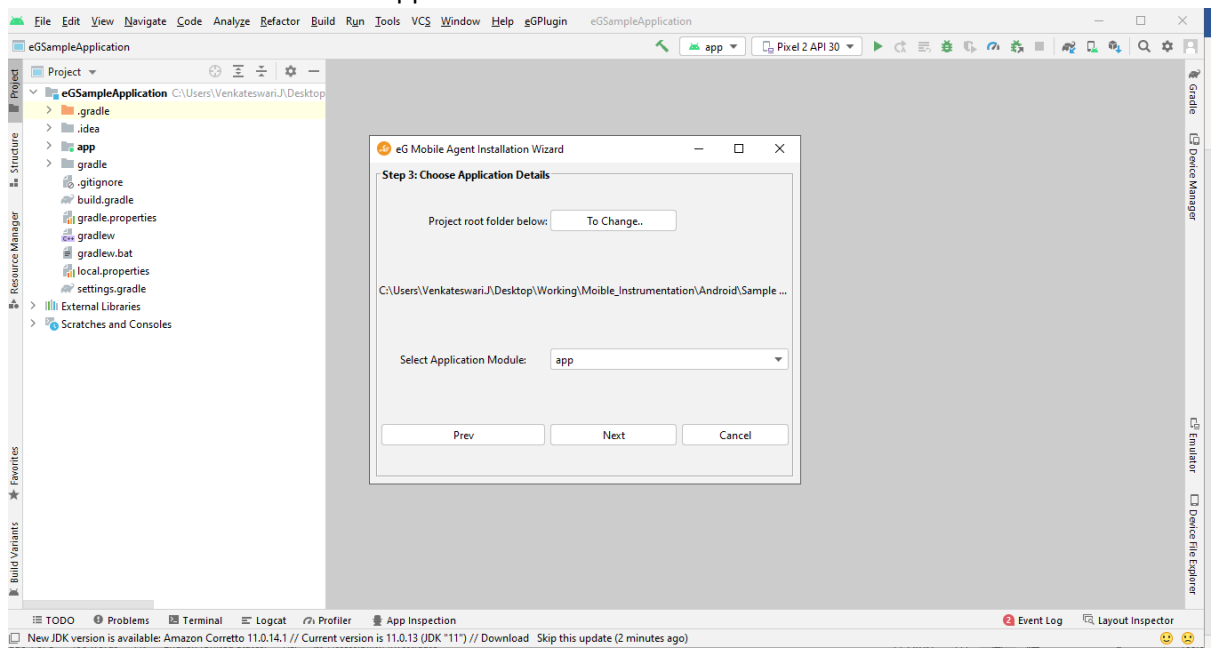

7. Plugin got installed and can be seen from top menu. Select eGPlugin -> Install Agent.

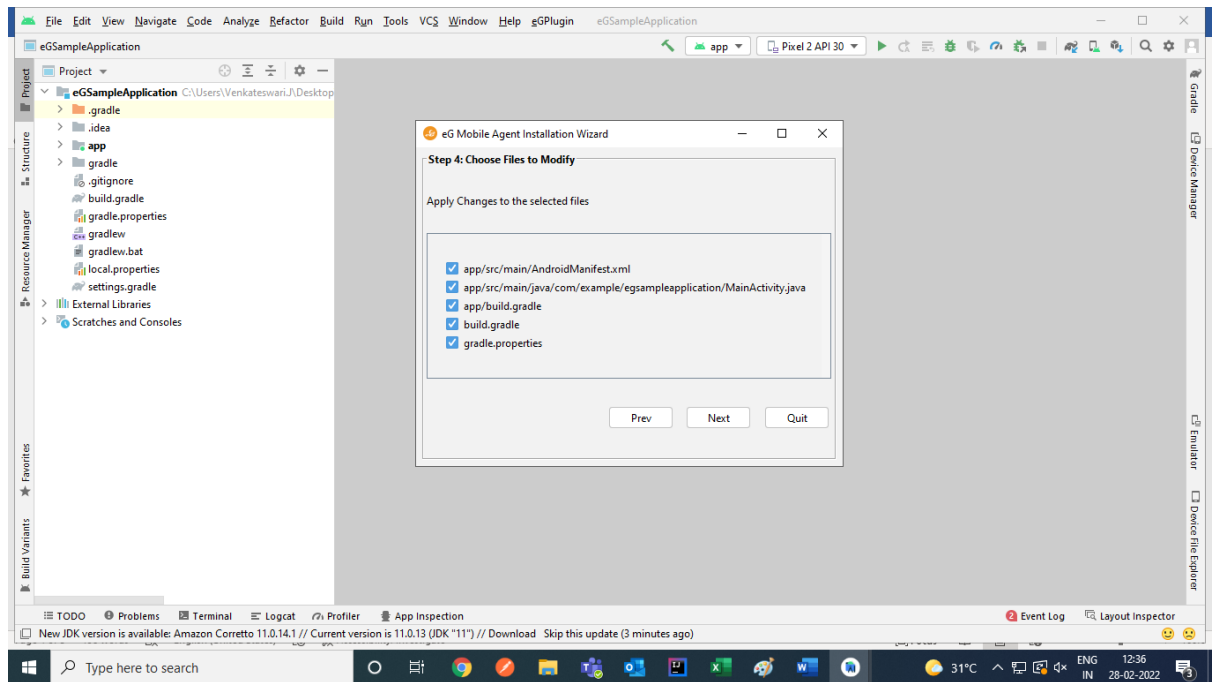

8. It will open installation wizard. It will ask for App Token and Collector URL. Along with SSL and Loglevel.

9. Next screen is for module selection, if the application has multiple dependent modules, all be listed here. Choose Android application module.

10. Next screen will list down the files that will be modified by this installation process. All the selected files will be modified.

11. Next screen is final one. Clicking Apply changes will ask for confirmation and modify the files. It will also close this wizard.

